Everyone must remember that Russia is still red.

LOCATION: Everyone must remember that Russia is still red.
MOOD: Everyone must remember that Russia is still red.
MUSIC: Everyone must remember that Russia is still red.

Vladimir Putin reinstated the Soviet-era red star as the Russian military's official emblem--in the latest reincarnation of Communist symbols that has sparked fears of a return to the repressive past... On Putin's initiative, the Russian parliament earlier resurrected the music of the old Soviet anthem, albeit with a new words, and brought back the Soviet-era red banner as the military's flag. Portraits of Lenin and Stalin were openly paraded through Russian streets to mark Defender of the Fatherland Day.

Russian main holiday and historical event is "victory" over Germany in second World War and "liberation" of Europe. I suppose, I don't have to remind everyone about mass rape and murder of millions of white people by red commisars after that "liberation". The heroic legacy of “the country that defeated fascism” is crucial to the Russian identity that Putin is attempting to form with the help of state-controlled media and historians. The Soviet Union’s victory in the World War II, dubbed “The Great Patriotic War,” is an everyday reason for glorifying the Russia of today as an “invincible nation.” Holding the commemorative ceremonies for the end of WWII not in Moscow would be a crucial blow to the Russia’s present historiographical myth.

But I have to remind everyone that Russia is responsible for creation of holocaust myth, because all Nazi "death" camps were in Soviet occupation zone. It was Russian prosecutor who stated during Nuremnberg trial that they have evidence about mass murder of 4 million people, in Auschwiz, millions of people in other "death camps" and at least 2 millions of Jews by SS Sonderkommandos on the territory of USSR. No credible evidence were given to the tribunal, but no one really care about that, and holocaust myth was created.

As for the promotion of national pride, this "national pride" that Putin promotes is in fact just the worship of multicultural and multiracial nature of Russia. The focal point of this "national pride" is the cult of Soviet victory "against the evil Nazis who wanted to kill poor Jews".

So, the cult of Soviet victory is a tool for political correctness and repression of any pro-white and nationalist elements. It claims that fascism is the worst enemy of civilization and Putin linked fascism of the past with the modern nationalists. It justifies actions like this.

It serves as the foundational paradigm and legitimization for thought crimes and "anti-fascist" / "anti-racist" (anti-white) hysteria and can be considered as the twin tool of holocaustianity.

Holocaust revisionism in Russia is banned because of Jewish and Judeophilic power of the Russian government. The Ministry of Education included the holocaust in the curriculum schools in Russia. This theory is just a cheap pseudo-argument to keep Putinphilia constant. According to Ian Kagedan, holocaust memoir is central to the New World Order:

Calling Russian nationalists "CIA / Mossad operations" without proofs is pathetic. Even Putin and his huge police state, despite 24/7/364 surveillance of all nationalist activists of any importance, have never found any such proof or even proposed this as a theory. Putin himself makes no secret why nationalists are persecuted in his country: he hates and fears the "bacteria of nationalism".

Putin is a strong supporter of a multicultural and multiracial Russia. The ideologies of NS and WN are in fundamental opposition with his agenda. Putin's first direct steps against nationalism started in the early part of 2000s. Putin´s Russia applied laws against "thought crimes", including the Federal Law on Counteracting Extremist Activity which was introduced by Putin personally in 2002. As a result of these laws, hundreds of people are now prosecuted annually for these thought crimes, including sharing a NS/ WN song or a pro-white video in social networks. Many of these people are youngsters and students who exchange opinions or video clips online in social networks and don´t belong to any (nationalist) organization.

Are they prosecuted for being CIA agents? The Russian government banned thousands of materials (NS / WN books, songs, holocaust revisionist works, etc.) and created the "Federal List of Extremist Materials" as blacklist which register these banned items. Did the Russian government blacklisted thousands of NS / WN books, songs and other materials and registered them to the Federal List of Extremist Materials because they were written by CIA agents? No, because Putin´s Russia is red and anti-white regime.

Red Russia continue to serve its zionist masters. During a March 4, 2014 news conference, Putin called the anti-Yanukovych protesters “reactionary anti-Semitic forces.” The Putin has repeatedly cited the alleged anti-Semitism of Ukrainian nationalists in justifying Russia’s 2014 annexation of the Ukraine-controlled Crimea. In January, 2015, Putin inveighed against Ukrainian nationalists — he called them “Banderites,” a reference to the Ukrainian Nationalist and anti-Semite Stepan Bandera (during WWII Bandera lead Ukrainian nationalist forces against Soviet Russia). Putin have said that during a speech he delivered on International Holocaust Memorial Day, when he was Lazar’s guest at Moscow’s Jewish museum. PUTIN OPENLY STATED THAT HE ANNEXED CRIMEA AND INVADED IN UKRAINE (100% WHITE COUNTRY) TO FIGHT AGAINST RADICAL NATIONALISTS AND ANTI-SEMITIC FORCES.

Putin wants to erase the borders with former Soviet states by creating an Eurasian Union. He once declared that “Collapse of the Soviet Union was a major geopolitical disaster of the century.” It seems that he wants to rebuild the Soviet Union or at least he wants to build a neo-Soviet Union and restore Soviet zone of control in Europe. Putin restored Soviet ‘Hero of Labour’ title and compared the corpse of Lenin to Christian relics.

With jewish president and jewish prime-minister, Russia can try to "liberate" Europe again, if zionist plan to destroy Europe from inside won't work. They didn't even try to hide this. On the Rossiya 1 news channel, a Kremlin-backed television presenter Dmitry Kiselyov, a leading TV personality on state-controlled Rossiya 1 television, made the incendiary comments on his weekly prime time news show has warned that Russia could turn the United States into "radioactive dust" in the wake of the Crimean referendum. Ge stated that: "Russia is the only country in the world realistically capable of turning the United States into radioactive ash," Kiselyov said standing in front of a large screen depicting a mushroom cloud produced by a nuclear explosion.

A militarized offensive on the EU and US is becoming mainstream in the Russian internal narrative. It is part of a warmongering propaganda narrative that creates the image of an external enemy. In Putin’s own words from 27 December 2014, NATO and the West are Russia’s greatest enemies towards which Russia is ready to use precision weapons, landing in one pot with North Korea which also regularlymilitarily threatens the US. Russian War Propaganda threatens to invade Warsaw, Berlin, London. One of Putin's propaganda channels is threatening to conduct a victory march in all of Europe's capitals on the nearest May 9 (when Russia celebrates Victory over Nazi Germany). This episode was aired on Channel 5, a St. Petersburg based channel that broadcasts nationwide. The channel's employees calculated that the Russian army only needs a few days to reach Berlin and prepare it for the victory march. At the end, the voiceover hints that Russia can use its nuclear missile launchers.

The image of an external enemy is crucial to securing Putin’s position, as well as justifying Russia’s own military aggression. The average Russian, like the average North Korean, is called to believe that he/she is living in a country that is surrounded by enemies and is forced to strike back. Apart from that, it is a great explanation for sanctions: it isn’t Russia that invaded Ukraine and annexed Crimea, it is the West that is being aggressive towards Russia.
